

SPEAKER

Lori Wolfe

Jesus captured Lori's heart as a young teen. Since that time He has given her an incredible desire to be used to spur others on to walk more intimately with the Lord.

Lori and her husband, Rich, live in Colorado Springs, have been married for several decades, and have three adult children and two adorable granddaughters. They served as missionaries in the Philippines for several years. Presently she is a middle and high school English and Bible teacher. Meeting with women over coffee and playing pickle ball are two of her favorite hobbies.

SILENT AUCTION

The Silent Auction is a tradition at Ladies' Retreat. Funds from the auction are split between Rocky Mountain Friends Women mission projects and retreat expenses. You are encouraged to contribute items such as hand-made items, gift baskets, pottery, wooden objects, jewelry, and baked goods such as breads, cookies, and candy.

For further information call 2018 Retreat Co-Coordinators: Phyllis Lemons (303-232-6199) or Kay Burgi (303-421-6425)
